

Last Warning to Voters in UK Elections

If you vote for any of the three main parties, then you are voting for your own obliteration. Labour is Marxist, Tories are Fascist, and LibDems are a mix of both! All three believe they can treat us with contempt, pretending to give us praise whilst ignoring our worst fears. None of them listens to voters.

We contacted the leaders, saying that gay laws forced on us thus far have criminalized Christians and robbed us of freedom of conscience and speech. The same laws can also be used against ANYONE with an independent mind.

We therefore asked the following questions (slightly rephrased here):

1. “Do you intend creating more gay laws knowing they will harm Christians?”
There was no answer.
2. We therefore asked again, this time rewording:
“Do you intend creating new gay laws, knowing they will harm Christians and everyone else who wishes to express their views?”
Again, there was no answer.
3. We repeated a similar question a third time, especially of David Cameron...
“Do you intend harming Christians and society as a whole with new gay laws? If you do not reply, we will take that as an affirmation.”
There was no answer... which is an affirmation of our worse fears.

Believing that Cameron’s avid disregard for Christians and their freedom of conscience is over the top and very bizarre, we then asked two personal questions, because of David Cameron’s manic race to please gays:

4. “Are you gay?” and
5. “Were you involved in an indiscretion at some time and so, avoiding being ‘outed’, you are giving gays whatever they demand?”

We again said that a non-answer would be taken as affirmation, so Cameron had the opportunity to refute the implications of the questions.

There was no answer to these vital questions!

The questions were asked because we need to know just why Cameron in particular is so obsessive about homosexuality, especially as he recently had the gall to send a gay MP to rebuke world leaders in Europe, for not accepting the gay agenda, calling them ‘extremists’, when non-acceptance of homosexuality is the majority view in the UK and Europe!

Make what you will from the above.

But, bear this in mind – all three parties intend destroying Christian beliefs and witness. Vote for any of them and you vote for your own demise.

As these issues are of immense significance to Christians we expected answers, but none came. This reflects the arrogance of MPs and prospective MPs who think they are our masters, and not our servants. It is an arrogance that came to the fore with the expenses scandal – which all MPs knew would die down, allowing them to continue just as before. Sure enough – they just carry on regardless, ignoring voters.

Well, if we allow it to continue, the repercussions are on our own heads. Oppose the three main parties right now or lose your freedom!

Whilst the warning is particular to Christians it also applies to anyone, of any religion or none at all, who values freedom of speech and conscience! This issue, then, affects the whole population. Do you want a Marxist-Fascist regime... or freedom to believe as you wish, with the freedom to oppose or disagree with whatever you wish? It is up to you.
